Welcome to the home of golf. We don't mean
St Andrews ... we mean this very building ... this very bar.

You are in Hamilton Grand, Scotland's most luxurious hotel when it opened in 1895 and now a collection of luxury apartments ... as well as Hams Hame Pub & Grill.

The Grand's creator, Thomas Hamilton, had a vision to create something very special. He purchased all of the cottages that were on this site - and demolished them to build his masterpiece.

One of those cottages was where, in 1812, Hugh Philp once made his elegant gooseneck clubs for the members of the Society of St Andrews Golfers. In the same cottage, in 1835, the Union Club was formed - providing a 'parlour' for golfers. It was the very first club for golfers ... and you are on the very site.

Welcome!
