

Alfred Dunhill Links Championship
Dining Club - 2015

Old Course Hotel, Golf Resort & Spa, St Andrews

In its fifteenth year, we are delighted to present the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship Dining Club at the Old Course Hotel, Golf Resort & Spa.

With its unique location on the world's most famous golf course, luxurious Kohler Waters Spa, decadent dining, and the utmost attention-to-detail, Scotland's award-winning five star resort - the Old Course Hotel, Golf Resort & Spa - is the ultimate golfing experience and the perfect location for the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship Dining Club.

The Old Course Hotel offers a magnificent dining experience in the Road Hole Restaurant and the Road Hole Bar - both accessible to guests of the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship Dining Club.

The Road Hole Restaurant (rated 3 AA rosettes) The Road Hole Bar

This is a well known must-visit gourmet destination for all food lovers, with a birds-eye view of the Old Course and of course, the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship.

The Restaurant boasts dramatic floor to ceiling windows which capture the picture-postcard views of the Old Course, the "auld grey toon" of St Andrews and sweeping coastal vistas.

The award-winning Road Hole Bar, located next door to the restaurant also offers the amazing views of the Old Course from the floor-to-ceiling windows. Whisky aficionados around the globe flock to the Road Hole Bar to sample more than 250 whiskies representing every operational and many mothballed distilleries in Scotland. The bar also has an excellent range of cocktails, champagnes and wines. It's daytime menu ensures the Road Hole Bar is the most coveted viewing gallery in the world of Golf

The Alfred Dunhill Links Championship, conceived as a celebration of links golf, is a unique professional and amateur team tournament played over three of the world's best known links courses: the Old Course at St Andrews, the Kingsbarns Golf Links and the Championship Course at Carnoustie.

The Championship pairs 168 professionals with 168 amateurs from the worlds of sport, business and entertainment.

Hospitality places are available in the Dining Club overlooking the world famous Road Hole of the Old Course, St Andrews - without a doubt, the finest view of golf in the world, bar none.

The hospitality experience includes:

- Morning coffee and tea with freshly baked pastries
- 3-course lunch with fine wines
- Afternoon tea and coffee with homemade scones
- Links Times with Draw Sheet
- Entry badge and preferred parking

£195 per person (including VAT) for Thursday 1st, Friday 2nd and Saturday 3rd October

£215 per person (including VAT) for Sunday 4th October

Please note, because of the exclusive nature of the Dining Club, availability is limited and all bookings will be made on a 'first come' basis.
