KOHLER ART WALK

“Life without labor is guilt. Labor without art is brutality.” – John Ruskin

Since the beginning in 1873, Kohler Co. has always respected and admired artists and their craft. In 1974, the company brought artists in residence, officially bridging the gap between art and industry.

Administered by the John Michael Kohler Arts Center of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, Arts/Industry allows artists to work hand in hand with the skilled craftspeople of Kohler Co. to bring their creative visions to life. Along with professional expertise, the artists are afforded access to Kohler Co.'s industrial technologies and facilities through residencies and workshops.

Over 500 artists from around the world have contributed their creativity and craft in this artful, acclaimed collaboration. And over time, the combined efforts of artists and the skilled tradespeople of Kohler Co. have come to life to amass a collection of work that is without parallel.

Today, a large selection of Arts/Industry pieces are proudly displayed throughout the Village of Kohler. Art Walk is an opportunity for visitors to experience and appreciate the result of this unique collaboration while enjoying an inspired three-quarter mile stroll through the storybook garden community.
